

Edmonds Center for the Arts Call for Artists

CALL FOR ARTISTS – Single-Artist Exhibit at Edmonds Center for the Arts
DEADLINE: None. Submissions accepted throughout the year.

Edmonds Center for the Arts, Edmonds, Washington; All Media; Western US

Open to all professional and amateur visual artists. Painting, drawing, photography, and sculpture. Approximately 6 - 10 pieces by a selected artist will be exhibited for one to three months in the mezzanine gallery of the new Edmonds Center for the Arts, a stunning Art Deco-era building in downtown Edmonds, Washington with regular performances attended by hundreds of patrons. Exhibits will coincide with ongoing presenting series at ECA (September through April). Artists are invited to view ECA's presenting series and select corresponding works for the shows in the series. Go to www.ec4arts.org for information about the ECA presenting series.

Up to ten images will be accepted. Framed paintings, drawings, and photography must be at least 18" x 24" in size. Electronic images preferred and must be in jpg format, with a resolution of 150 dpi, and not exceed 800 X 600 pixels. Exhibitions will be presented at least quarterly on an ongoing basis, and all entries will be retained for selection up to two years from date of submission.

Please send:

1. Artist Entry Information (below)
2. Digital jpg. Format of up to ten works, each labeled or titled
3. A current résumé and current artist statement
