Reservations & Pricing

Tickets to Education Matinees are $9 per student. ECA offers one free teacher/chaperone ticket for every 10 student tickets sold. Additional adult tickets are $9 each.

ARTS FOR EVERYONE

Schools with an overall percentage of 30% or higher of students on Free and Reduced-Price Meal programs are given priority for $2 tickets to Education Matinees, through the Arts for Everyone program.

AUNT BETTE’S BUS FUND

ECA is proud to provide transportation funding on a first-come, first-served basis for schools demonstrating need. Approved applicants will be provided a transportation subsidy of up to $250, subject to availability. Teachers are notified of award amount two months prior to the performance, and reimbursed after attendance based on final receipts.

Payment for Education Matinees may be made by cash, check, credit card, or school/district purchase order (PO), and is due one month prior to the performance. Reservations made within one month of the show require full payment immediately. POs are invoiced at the time of reservation and require a physical copy prior to the performance. Any cancellations/adjustments must be made at least 2 weeks prior to the show to be eligible for a refund or performance exchange, and must be confirmed by ECA.

To reserve your seats, please contact Katie Newbaum, Education & Outreach Coordinator, at katie@ec4arts.org or by mail: 410 4th Ave N, Edmonds, WA. 98020.

Edmonds Center for the Arts presents:

EDUCATION MATINEES

2020-2021

With special thanks to Nancy Bittner and the Elizabeth R. Wallace Charitable Trust.
Kattam and his Tam-Tams
Monday, November 2, 2020
10:00 am & 12:00 pm
Best for K-6th grade
Music is the best passport to discovering the many cultures of the world! Percussionist Kattam invites students to discover Africa, the Middle East and India through rhythm, song and dance. From African rap and desert dance to trance Sufi rhythm and Bollywood dance, Kattam never fails to entertain.

Adventures of Prince Achmed
Tuesday, November 17, 2020
10:00 am
Best for 3rd grade and up
Taken from The Arabian Nights, this historic film tells the story of Prince Achmed and his magical flying horse, who together soar into a series of adventures. The program features a live score by Miles & Karina, with accordion, guitar, banjo, viola, glockenspiel and percussion. Prince Achmed is the oldest existing animated film, created by 23-year-old teacher Lotte Reiniger using stop-motion and silhouette animation techniques.

Ensemble Mik Nawooj (EMN)
Thursday, February 11, 2021
10:00 am
Best for 4th grade and up
This young orchestral ensemble engages audiences with an accessible style that blends hip-hop and classical music. The group performs with an MC/lyricist, as well as lyric soprano, flute, clarinet, violin, cello, piano, drums, and bass. The result is music that is dynamic, diverse and awe-inspiring.

Secrets of Space
Wednesday, March 24, 2021
10:00 am & 12:00 pm
Best for 2nd-6th grades
As young girls, Suni and Mae dreamt about journeying far beyond our solar system. Using magical illusions and a state-of-the-art digital LED wall, the sisters and audience embark on an interactive journey across the galaxy. The wonders of outer space are explored with dazzling imagery and key ideas and inventions in science, technology and engineering.

What If
Tuesday, March 30, 2021
10:00 am & 12:00 pm
Best for 2nd-7th grades
While most kids can’t wait for recess, anxious Nicky would rather spend her time in the school’s sick room. However, when Milo, a boy with diabetes, comes into her life, Nicky’s peace and quiet turns to chaos! At first, these polar opposites’ worlds collide, but Nicky and Milo discover they have more to learn from each other than they think.

Mariachi Reyna de Los Angeles
Thursday, April 29, 2021
12:00 pm
All Ages
As America’s first all-female mariachi ensemble, Reyna de Los Angeles brings vivacious spirit and warmth to the historic art of mariachi. Mentored by the legendary Maestro José Hernández, the group has performed for some of the world’s highest-profile celebrities, including Oprah Winfrey and Barack & Michelle Obama.